Breaking up is hard to do, but finding love is much, much harder.

Farrah Abraham is back on the market, and she's recruiting one of the world's most infamous matchmakers to guide her quest to find love.

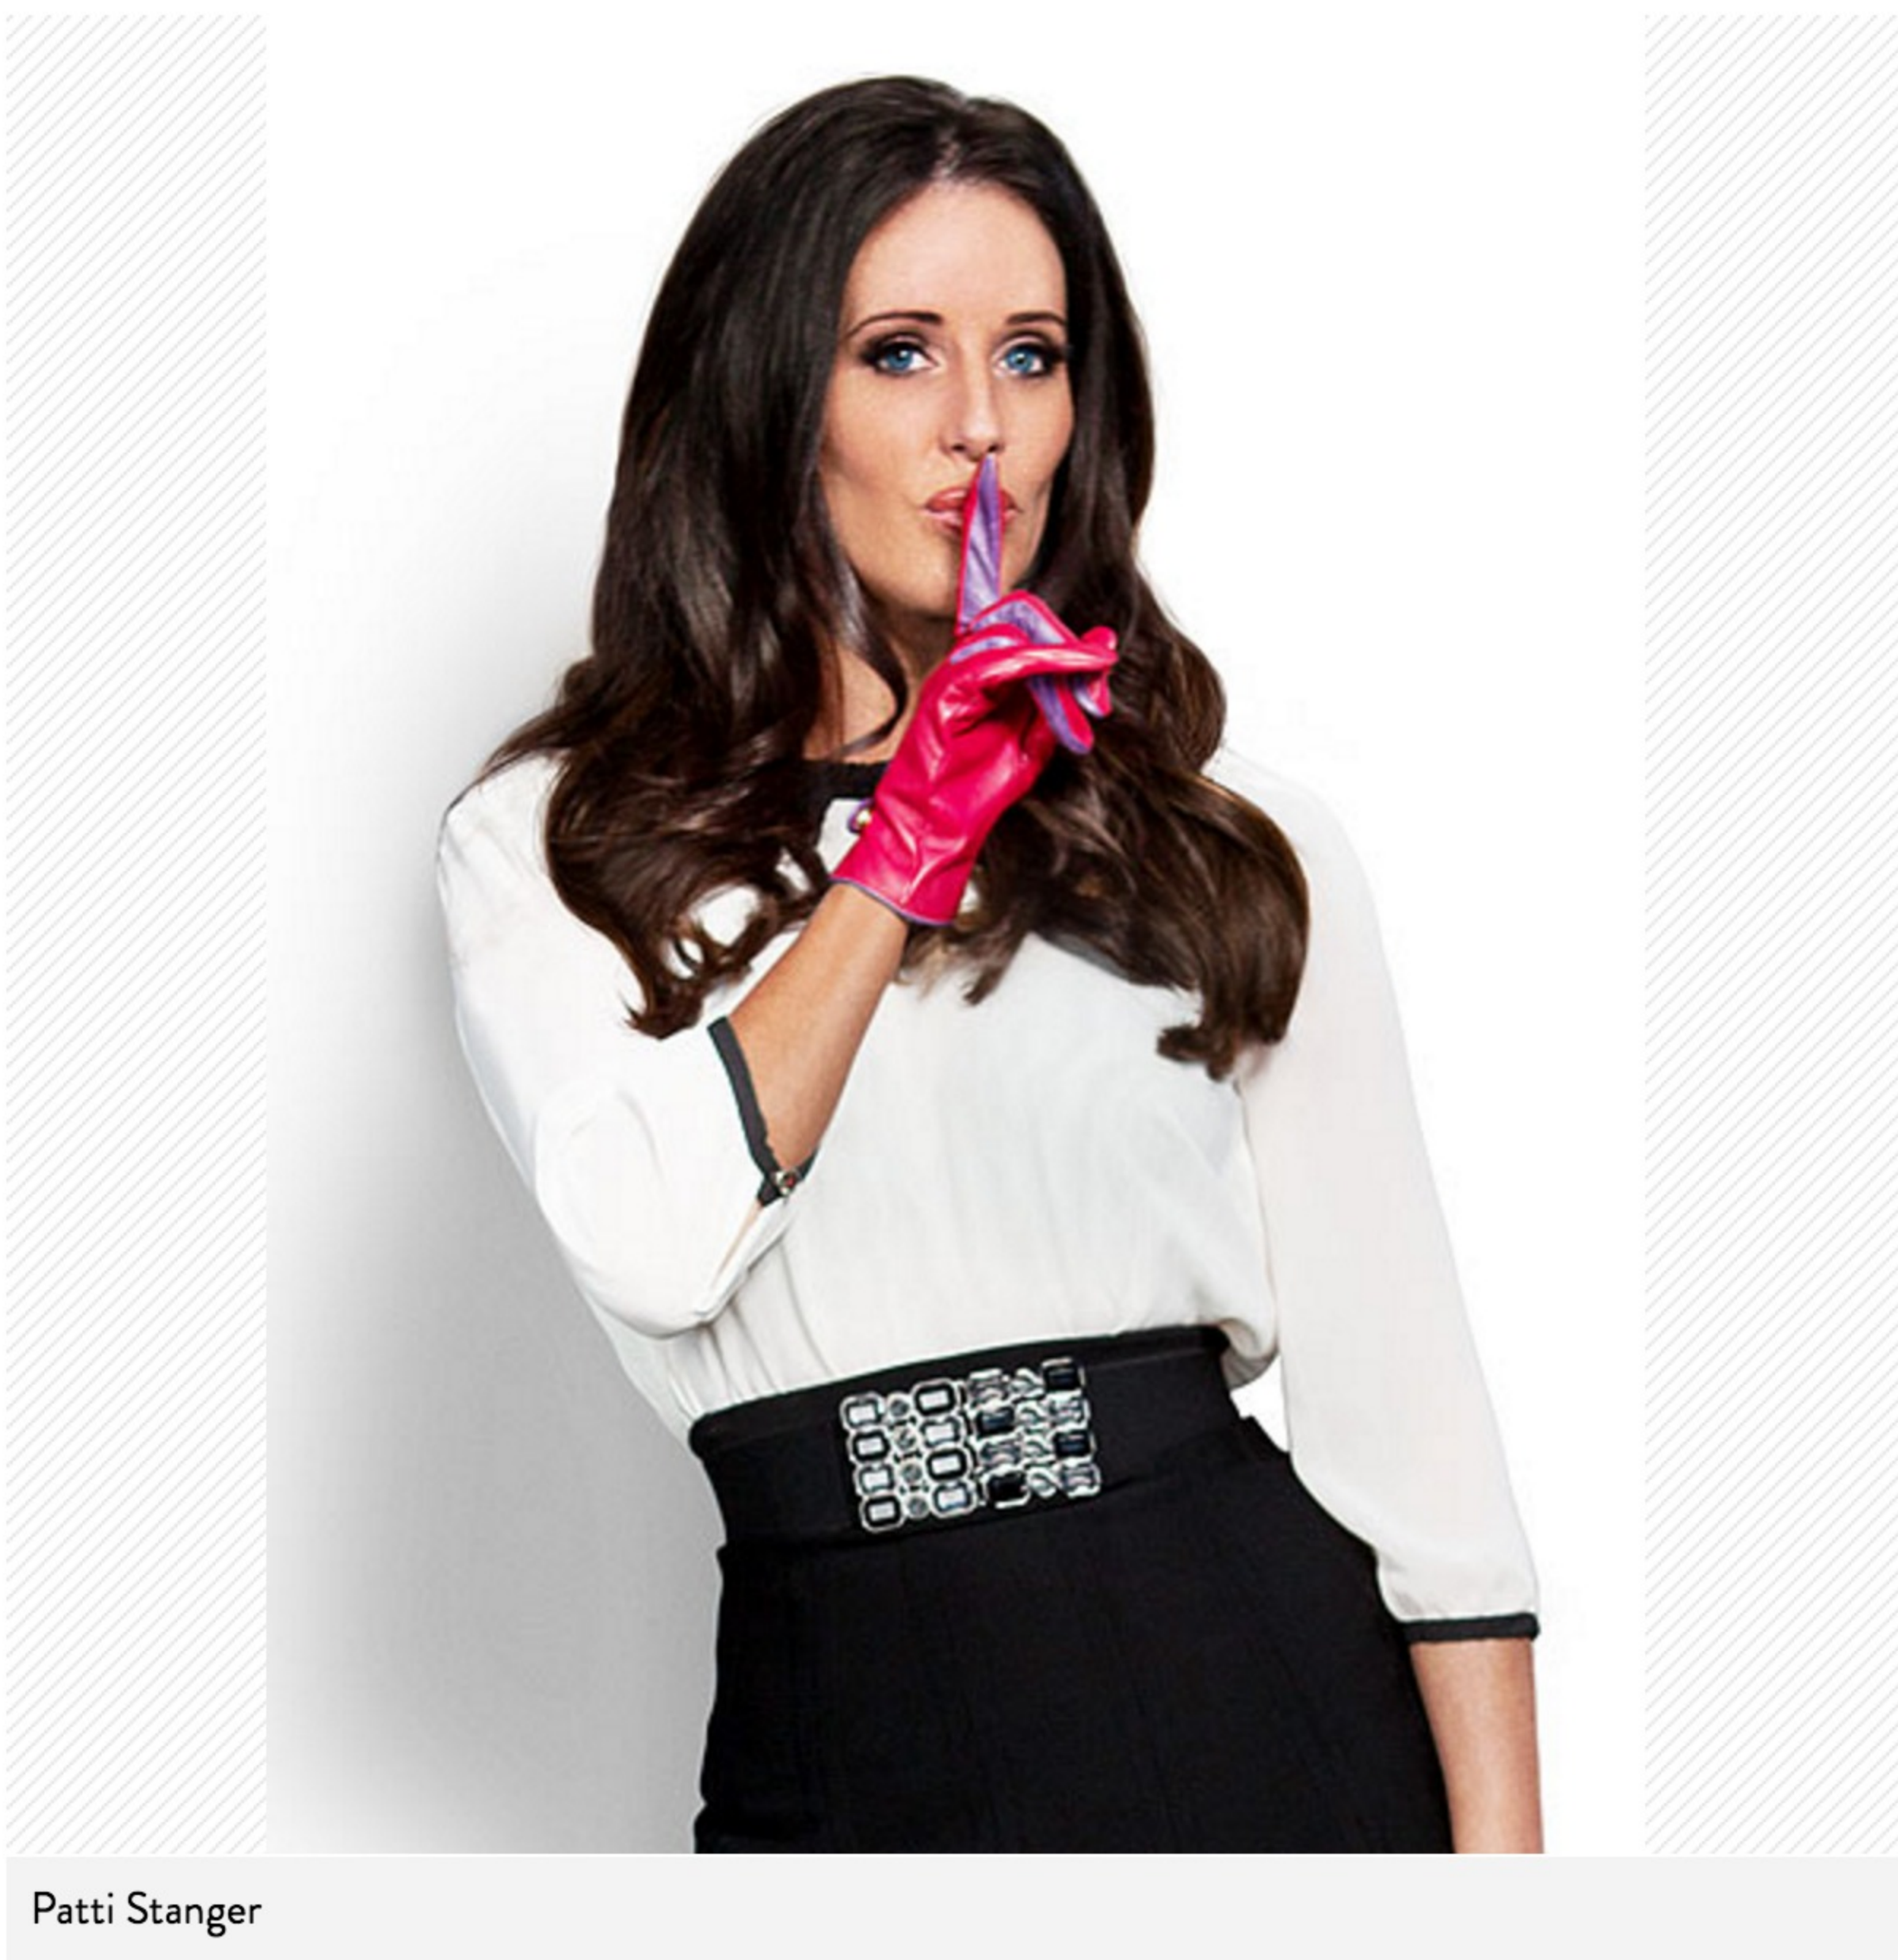

In an exclusive sneak peek at Patti Stanger's new WEtv series Million Dollar Matchmaker, the love guru is "upping her game" and with a week-long intensive retreat populated by some of "the toughest cases I've ever seen in my career."

In the clip, the 25-year-old Teen Mom star tearfully tells Stanger, 55: "I don't know why it's so hard to find someone else to love me."

Stanger also takes on the case of self-proclaimed Human Ken Doll Justin Jedlica, 35, and set him up on a literal blind date, forcing him to learn how to carry on a conversation without relying on his looks.

Somewhere amid the sharp-tongued yenta's relationship counseling and trademark blunt feedback, things get explosive when Stanger warns that she'll be forced to break down her millionaire clients before building them up.

And the stakes are high as she screams, "If I can't fix you up, who the f--- can?"

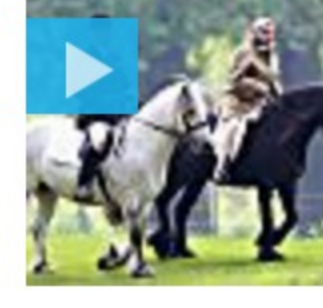

Million Dollar Matchmaker premieres July 8 at 10 p.m. ET on WEtv.
